

EDULCORATOR

Meaning: Edulcorator: a device used in food processing, particularly in candy manufacturing, that enhances sweetness without adding calories.

1. The edulcorator was a crucial piece of equipment in the candy manufacturing process.
2. Researchers found that the edulcorator could significantly enhance the sweetness of the product without adding extra calories.
3. In the lab, the team tested various formulations using the edulcorator to improve flavor profiles.
4. The new edulcorator design promised greater efficiency and reduced waste in sweetener production.
5. After careful calibration, the edulcorator achieved the desired taste balance that consumers loved.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/edulcorator>