

EFFERVESCE

Meaning: Effervesce: to give off bubbles of gas or produce a fizzy reaction, often seen in carbonated liquids or during certain chemical processes.

1. The soda began to effervesce as soon as the cap was popped off.
2. During the chemical reaction, the mixture started to effervesce, creating a foamy eruption.
3. Her laughter seemed to effervesce through the room, lifting everyone's spirits.
4. As the sunlight hit the surface of the water, it appeared to effervesce with tiny bubbles.
5. The excitement in the air made the crowd effervesce with energy and anticipation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/effervesce>