

EFFLUENT

Meaning: Effluent refers to liquid waste or sewage that is discharged into a natural body of water, often from industrial or agricultural sources.

1. The factory was penalized for discharging untreated effluent into the river.
2. Environmentalists are concerned about the effects of agricultural effluent on local wildlife.
3. After the treatment process, the effluent was found to meet safety regulations before being released.
4. Effluent from the wastewater treatment plant is carefully monitored to prevent contamination.
5. Innovative technologies are being developed to reduce the pollution caused by industrial effluent.
6. The effluent from the treatment plant was carefully monitored to prevent pollution of the nearby river.
7. Regulations require that all effluent be treated to meet environmental standards before being discharged.
8. Farmers were concerned about the effluent runoff contaminating their crops and affecting their livelihoods.
9. The city invested in advanced technology to ensure that its effluent did not harm the ecosystem.
10. Scientists studied the effects of industrial effluent on marine life in the coastal waters.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/effluent>