

EFFLUVIAL

Meaning: Effluvial refers to something that is emitted or discharged, often used to describe a scent or substances, particularly those that are fragrant or enriching in nature.

1. The effluvial scent of the flowers filled the air, creating a captivating atmosphere.
2. As the riverbank eroded, the effluvial deposits enriched the soil for the surrounding vegetation.
3. The scientist studied the effluvial layers in the sediment to gather clues about the region's geological history.
4. During the spring thaw, the effluvial runoff carried nutrients into the lake, promoting aquatic life.
5. The effluvial haze from the nearby factory added a layer of complexity to the urban landscape.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/effluvial>