

EFFRONT

Meaning: Effront refers to behavior that is brazenly disrespectful or audacious, often in a way that shocks or offends others.

1. His effront behavior during the meeting shocked everyone present.
2. She had the effront audacity to challenge the CEO directly in front of the board.
3. I couldn't believe his effront comments about her appearance at the party.
4. The effront manner in which he dismissed her concerns left her feeling undervalued.
5. Despite his effront attitude, he managed to charm some of the guests at the event.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/effront>