

EFFUME

Meaning: Effume (verb): To emit or release a fragrant or vaporous substance into the air.

1. The artist decided to effume the essence of the city in her latest painting.
2. As the incense began to effume throughout the room, a sense of calm settled over the guests.
3. The chef aimed to effume the rich flavors of the spices into the dish, creating a memorable experience.
4. During the ceremony, the fragrant oils were used to effume the air, enhancing the sacred atmosphere.
5. The scientist studied how different materials effume when heated, hoping to discover new applications.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/effume>