

EGRESS

Meaning: Egress is the act of going out or leaving a place, especially in reference to an exit or means of exit.

1. The emergency exit provided a clear egress for everyone during the fire drill.
2. In urban planning, ensuring adequate egress routes is essential for public safety.
3. The old building's narrow stairway posed a challenge for safe egress in case of an emergency.
4. She marked the map with the quickest egress points in case they needed to leave the area.
5. After the concert, the crowd hurried toward the egress to avoid traffic congestion.
6. The emergency exit sign illuminated the path for a quick egress from the building.
7. After the meeting, the team found the fastest egress to avoid the heavy traffic outside.
8. The architect designed the layout with multiple points of egress to enhance safety.
9. She waited patiently for the crowd to disperse before making her egress from the concert.
10. The fire drill emphasized the importance of knowing all possible egress routes in case of an emergency.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/egress>