

EJECTION

Meaning: EJECTION: The act of forcefully expelling or removing something from a system or environment, often used in contexts involving firearms or emergency procedures.

1. The ejection of the spent cartridge from the firearm was swift and efficient.
2. During the emergency landing, the pilot executed an ejection maneuver to ensure passenger safety.
3. The sudden ejection of the debris caused a minor delay in the construction project.
4. After the ejection from the game, the player received a warning from the referee.
5. The ejection of the toxic fumes was critical for maintaining a safe working environment.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/ejection>