

ELABORATION

Meaning: Elaboration is the process of providing additional detail or explanation to clarify or enhance understanding of a subject.

1. The professor requested further elaboration on the research findings to clarify the methodology used.
2. Her presentation lacked elaboration, leaving the audience with more questions than answers.
3. During the meeting, he provided an elaboration of the project's budget, detailing every expense.
4. The artist's work invites elaboration, encouraging viewers to interpret the deeper meanings behind each piece.
5. In her essay, she included an elaboration of the historical context surrounding the event.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/elaboration>