

ELABORATOR

Meaning: An elaborator is a person who enhances or expands upon information by providing detailed explanations or clarifications.

1. The researcher served as an elaborator, adding depth to the initial findings with detailed explanations.
2. In the meeting, she played the role of an elaborator, clarifying complex concepts for the team.
3. His skills as an elaborator were evident in the way he transformed simple ideas into comprehensive plans.
4. The teacher encouraged students to be elaborators in their writing, urging them to expand their thoughts.
5. As an elaborator, her job was to take rough drafts and enhance them with rich detail and context.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/elaborator>