

ELAPIDATION

Meaning: Elapidation is the process of erosion and sediment transport that results in significant changes to the landscape over time.

1. Elapidation can lead to significant changes in the landscape over time.
2. The study of elapidation offers insights into erosion and sediment transport.
3. Geologists often discuss elapidation when examining the effects of weathering on rock formations.
4. Understanding elapidation is crucial for effective environmental management and conservation efforts.
5. Elapidation processes can vary greatly depending on the climate and geological conditions of an area.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/elapidation>