

ELATION

Meaning: Elation is a feeling of great joy and excitement.

1. Her elation was evident as she opened the letter announcing her scholarship.
2. He felt a rush of elation when he crossed the finish line first in the race.
3. The team's victory filled the stadium with an atmosphere of pure elation.
4. After receiving the job offer, she couldn't contain her elation and called her family to share the news.
5. Elated by the unexpected promotion, he celebrated with his colleagues late into the night.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/elation>