

ELD

Meaning: ELD (Electronic Logging Device) refers to a technology used in commercial vehicles to automatically record driving hours and ensure compliance with regulations governing driver work hours.

1. The new regulations for ELD compliance have made a significant impact on the trucking industry.
2. Drivers must ensure their ELD devices are functioning properly to avoid penalties during inspections.
3. Many fleet managers are now relying on ELD data to optimize routes and reduce fuel consumption.
4. The integration of ELD technology has improved safety by promoting better hours-of-service adherence.
5. Understanding how to interpret ELD reports can help operators identify patterns in driver behavior.
6. The new ELD regulations have significantly improved safety on the roads.
7. Many trucking companies have adopted ELD systems to ensure compliance with federal guidelines.
8. Drivers are required to log their hours using an ELD to prevent fatigue-related accidents.
9. Some small fleet operators are concerned about the costs associated with implementing ELD technology.
10. The introduction of ELDs has led to more accurate tracking of driver hours and vehicle maintenance.
11. The company implemented an ELD system to improve its fleet's compliance with federal regulations.
12. Drivers reported that the new ELD made their logkeeping much more efficient and accurate.
13. The ELD data provided valuable insights into driving patterns and vehicle performance.
14. Regulatory agencies have mandated the use of ELDs to enhance safety on the roads.
15. Many trucking companies have embraced ELD technology to streamline their operations.

16. The introduction of the ELD has significantly improved the accuracy of driver logs.
17. Many trucking companies are now required to use ELD systems to comply with federal regulations.
18. The ELD data provides valuable insights into driver behavior and vehicle performance.
19. With the implementation of ELDs, the industry has seen a reduction in paperwork and administrative tasks.
20. Some drivers appreciate the ELD for its ability to track hours of service more efficiently.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/eld>