

ELDERSHIP

Meaning: Eldership is the state or position of being an elder, characterized by wisdom, respect, and the role of providing guidance within a community or culture.

1. Eldership within the community is often regarded as a position of wisdom and respect.
2. Many cultures around the world place great importance on the concept of eldership, valuing the guidance of older individuals.
3. The council of elders met to discuss the future direction of the village and its traditions.
4. In many indigenous societies, eldership is a role that carries both honor and responsibility.
5. As she embraced her role in eldership, she aimed to bridge the gap between generations through shared stories.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/eldership>