

ELECT

Meaning: To choose or select someone for a position or office, typically through a voting process.

1. We need to elect a new leader who can unite our team.
2. During the election, many citizens will exercise their right to elect representatives.
3. The committee decided to elect a chairperson from among its members.
4. Voters will have the opportunity to elect their preferred candidates next month.
5. It's important to educate young people about the process to elect officials effectively.
6. We need to elect a new committee chair during the next meeting.
7. The citizens will gather to elect their representatives in the upcoming election.
8. In a surprising turn of events, they decided to elect a candidate who was previously unknown.
9. It is important that everyone takes the time to research the candidates before they elect someone.
10. Many people feel that their vote doesn't matter, but it is crucial to elect leaders who reflect their values.
11. We will elect a new president during the upcoming election.
12. The committee decided to elect her as the chairperson due to her leadership skills.
13. In a democratic society, it is the responsibility of citizens to elect their representatives.
14. Many voters are eager to elect candidates who prioritize environmental issues.
15. He was thrilled to learn that he had been elected as the student council president.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/elect>