

ELECTANT

Meaning: Electant: a person or group eligible to vote or participate in an election.

1. The electant committee gathered to discuss the upcoming election procedures.
2. As an electant, she felt the weight of her responsibility to choose the best candidate.
3. During the town hall meeting, the electant voiced her concerns about local issues.
4. The electant's decision was influenced by the candidates' platforms and community engagement.
5. In a democratic process, every electant has the power to impact the future of their governance.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/electant>