

ELECTIONEERER

Meaning: An electioneerer is a person who actively promotes or campaigns for a candidate or political party during an election.

1. The electioneerer worked tirelessly to rally support for the candidate.
2. As an experienced electioneerer, she knew how to connect with voters on a personal level.
3. Local electioneerers often face unique challenges in engaging diverse communities.
4. The electioneerer's strategy included door-to-door canvassing and community events.
5. Despite the long hours, the electioneerer found fulfillment in advocating for change.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/electioneerer>