

ELECTOR

Meaning: Elector: a person who has the right to vote in an election, particularly in the context of selecting representatives or deciding on governmental matters.

1. The elector cast their vote in the early morning hours.
2. As an elector, she felt a strong responsibility to participate in the democratic process.
3. Historically, each elector was tasked with selecting the next president in the electoral college.
4. The elector's decision was influenced by the current political climate and public opinion.
5. In some states, the elector is bound by law to vote for the candidate who won the popular vote.
6. The elector cast her vote with confidence, knowing it would influence the outcome of the election.
7. During the meeting, the electors discussed the importance of representing their constituents' views accurately.
8. Historically, electors played a crucial role in the presidential election process in the United States.
9. Each elector pledged to support the candidate who won the popular vote in their state.
10. The assembly of electors convened to finalize their decision before the official announcement.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/elector>