

ELEMENTATION

Meaning: Elementation refers to the process of combining or manipulating elements or compounds to create new materials or substances.

1. Elementation is a crucial process in the development of new materials.
2. The scientist presented her findings on the elementation of various compounds at the conference.
3. Understanding elementation can lead to breakthroughs in sustainable energy solutions.
4. He explained the concept of elementation through a series of detailed experiments.
5. Elementation plays a significant role in determining the properties of alloys used in construction.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/elementation>