

ELOCUTIONARY

Meaning: Elocutionary refers to the art of effective public speaking and the techniques used to enhance verbal expression and delivery.

1. Her eloquent speech showcased her elocutionary skills in a way that captivated the audience.
2. The elocutionary techniques taught in the class helped students express themselves more confidently.
3. Mastering elocutionary principles can significantly enhance one's public speaking abilities.
4. During the competition, the judges evaluated each participant's elocutionary prowess meticulously.
5. The elocutionary style of the poet added a unique rhythm to her readings that resonated with listeners.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/elocutionary>