

ELOPE

Meaning: Elope: to run away secretly with a partner to marry, often without the consent or knowledge of family.

1. They decided to elope rather than face the disapproval of their families.
2. After months of planning, the couple finally chose to elope in a beautiful beach ceremony.
3. Feeling overwhelmed by wedding expectations, they agreed to elope in a quiet, intimate setting.
4. The adventurous pair made the spontaneous decision to elope at a charming little chapel in the mountains.
5. When their parents found out they had eloped, they were initially shocked but eventually came around.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/elope>