

ELOPEMENT

Meaning: ELOPEMENT: A spontaneous and often secretive act of marrying without the formalities of a traditional wedding ceremony, typically to avoid social pressures.

1. The couple decided on a spontaneous elopement to escape the pressures of a large wedding.
2. After months of planning, their elopement turned into the adventure of a lifetime in a secluded beach destination.
3. Elopement can often be seen as a rebellious act against traditional wedding norms.
4. Their elopement was a secret affair, shared only with their closest friends and family.
5. Many couples choose elopement to prioritize intimacy and authenticity over grand celebrations.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/elopement>