

EMBAR

Meaning: Embar (noun): a feeling of embarrassment or awkwardness in a social situation.

1. I always feel a little embar when I accidentally trip in public.
2. His embar at the unexpected compliment was evident on his face.
3. She tried to hide her embar by laughing it off, but her cheeks turned red.
4. In moments of embar, it's often best to just embrace the awkwardness.
5. The child's embar was palpable when he realized he had forgotten the lines for the play.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/embar>