

EMBITTERMENT

Meaning: Embitterness refers to a state of deep resentment or bitterness resulting from perceived unfair treatment or betrayal.

1. Her embitterment over the unfair treatment she received was palpable in every conversation.
2. Years of betrayal led to a deep embitterment that clouded his ability to trust others.
3. The embitterment he felt after losing the championship game lingered long after the final whistle.
4. Despite her success, embitterment crept into her heart, fueled by memories of past injustices.
5. He struggled to overcome the embitterment that had taken root during his difficult childhood.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/embitterment>