

EMBLANCH

Meaning: To emblanch means to make something white or lighter in color, often by cleaning or preparing a surface.

1. The artist decided to emblanch the canvas before starting her new painting.
2. In an attempt to emblanch the old photograph, he carefully cleaned it with a special solution.
3. The chef added cream to the sauce to emblanch it, creating a richer flavor.
4. To create a lighter mood in the room, she chose to emblanch the dark furniture with a fresh coat of paint.
5. The designer's goal was to emblanch the space, making it feel airier and more inviting.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/emblanch>