

EMBOTEMENT

Meaning: Embotement refers to a state of mental dullness or emotional numbness, often characterized by a lack of responsiveness or enthusiasm.

1. The patient's embotement after the medication made it difficult for him to engage in conversation.
2. Her constant fatigue led to a sense of embotement, dulling her enthusiasm for activities she once loved.
3. He noticed an embotement in his emotional responses, making it hard to connect with his friends.
4. The embotement that followed the traumatic event left her feeling numb and disconnected from reality.
5. During the winter months, many people experience an embotement that affects their mood and energy levels.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/embotement>