

EMBROID

Meaning: EMBROID: To interweave or braid together strands or elements, often for decorative or artistic purposes.

1. She decided to embroid her long hair into an intricate braid for the festival.
2. The artist chose to embroid natural elements into her sculpture, reflecting her love for nature.
3. As they danced, their movements seemed to embroid the colors of their costumes into a vibrant tapestry.
4. He watched in awe as the skilled craftsman began to embroid the delicate threads into a stunning fabric.
5. The ceremony included a moment where the families would embroid their traditions, symbolizing unity.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/embroid>