

EMBROWN

Meaning: To embrown means to turn or become brown, particularly in reference to leaves or food as they undergo a change in color.

1. The autumn leaves began to embrown, transforming the landscape into a warm tapestry of colors.
2. As the bread baked in the oven, it started to embrown, releasing a delicious aroma throughout the kitchen.
3. The artist chose to embrown the canvas to create a rich, earthy backdrop for her vibrant paintings.
4. Sunlight streaming through the window cast a golden hue that seemed to embrown the walls of the room.
5. Over time, the paper began to embrown, hinting at its age and the stories it held within.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/embrown>