

EMETO-CATHARTIC

Meaning: Emeto-cathartic refers to a substance or treatment that induces vomiting and promotes purging to cleanse the body of toxins.

1. The emeto-cathartic properties of the herbal remedy surprised the researchers during the clinical trials.
2. In traditional medicine, emeto-cathartic treatments are often used to cleanse the body of toxins.
3. The doctor recommended an emeto-cathartic approach for patients suffering from severe poisoning.
4. Historical texts reveal that ancient cultures frequently employed emeto-cathartic methods for various ailments.
5. As part of the detoxification process, the emeto-cathartic agent was administered to the patient with strict supervision.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/emeto-cathartic>