

EMIGRATIONIST

Meaning: An emigrationist is a person who supports or promotes the movement of individuals from one country to settle in another, often in search of better opportunities.

1. The emigrationist advocated for policies that would facilitate the movement of people seeking better opportunities abroad.
2. During the seminar, the emigrationist shared personal stories of families who had successfully relocated to new countries.
3. An emigrationist often emphasizes the importance of cultural integration in the host country.
4. In his writings, the emigrationist explores the economic impacts of large-scale migration on both sending and receiving nations.
5. The conference featured an emigrationist who highlighted the challenges faced by those leaving their homeland in search of a better life.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/emigrationist>