

EMOLLIATING

Meaning: Emolliating refers to having the quality of softening or soothing the skin, often by moisturizing or alleviating irritation.

1. The emolliating properties of the lotion left her skin feeling soft and smooth.
2. After a long day in the sun, he sought out an emolliating balm to soothe his chapped lips.
3. The spa offered an emolliating treatment that promised to rejuvenate dry and tired skin.
4. She preferred emolliating ingredients in her skincare products to ensure maximum hydration.
5. His grandmother always recommended using emolliating creams during the harsh winter months.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/emolliating>