

EMOLLIENT

Meaning: Emollient: a substance that softens and moisturizes the skin, often used to alleviate dryness and irritation.

1. The dermatologist recommended an emollient to soothe her dry, irritated skin.
2. Many lotions contain emollients to help retain moisture and improve skin texture.
3. After the harsh winter, he relied on an emollient to restore his cracked hands.
4. The emollient properties of the cream made it ideal for treating eczema flare-ups.
5. She always keeps an emollient on her nightstand for quick relief after a long day.
6. The emollient properties of the cream made her skin feel soft and hydrated.
7. He preferred using an emollient lotion after shaving to soothe his irritated skin.
8. The dermatologist recommended an emollient for the dry patches on his elbows.
9. After a long day in the sun, she applied an emollient to restore moisture to her skin.
10. The natural oils in the emollient helped to repair the skin barrier effectively.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/emollient>