

EMOTIONALISM

Meaning: Emotionalism is a tendency to prioritize or express emotions over rational thought, often influencing decision-making and artistic expression.

1. Emotionalism often clouds judgment, leading people to make decisions based on feelings rather than logic.
2. The artist's work was a vivid expression of emotionalism, capturing the raw intensity of human experience.
3. In literature, emotionalism can elevate a narrative, drawing readers into the depths of the characters' feelings.
4. Critics argue that excessive emotionalism in political speeches can detract from the substance of the arguments presented.
5. Her passionate stance on the issue was rooted in emotionalism, which resonated strongly with the audience.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/emotionalism>