

EMPLASTER

Meaning: Emplaster (verb): To cover or coat a surface, typically a wall, with plaster to create a smooth finish or repair damaged areas.

1. The workers will emplaSter the walls of the new building to ensure a smooth finish.
2. After the repairs, we need to emplaSter the damaged areas to match the original texture.
3. She decided to emplaSter the clay sculpture to give it a more polished appearance.
4. It is important to emplaSter the surface properly before painting to achieve the best results.
5. The contractor advised us to emplaSter the entire surface to prevent water damage in the future.
6. The contractor decided to emplacer the walls with a new layer of plaster to improve insulation.
7. After the repair work was completed, the workers carefully emplaced the plaster to ensure a smooth finish.
8. To achieve a rustic look, she chose to emplace the emblems with a textured plaster technique.
9. He learned how to emplace plaster properly, transforming the old, cracked surface into a flawless canvas.
10. The artist planned to emplace a thick layer of plaster on the sculpture to give it more depth and character.
11. The contractor decided to emplacer the walls with a fresh coat of plaster to improve the room's aesthetics.
12. After the renovations, the emplaced walls felt smoother and more polished than ever before.
13. She learned how to emplacer the surface properly to ensure durability and an even finish.
14. The artist chose to emplacer the sculpture with a unique blend of materials for an innovative look.
15. To prepare for painting, they needed to emplacer the damaged areas of the wall first.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/emplaster>