

EMPOISONER

Meaning: Empoisoner: a person who deliberately administers poison to harm or kill others.

1. The detective suspected that the famous chef was an empoisoner, as several guests fell ill after dining at his restaurant.
2. In a thrilling novel, the protagonist uncovers a plot involving an empoisoner targeting influential figures in the city.
3. The historical account revealed that an empoisoner had been active in the royal court, evading capture for years.
4. During the trial, the evidence against the accused empoisoner was circumstantial but deeply unsettling.
5. She wrote a gripping article about the rise of empoisoners in the criminal underworld, highlighting their methods and motives.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/empoisoner>