

EMPOISONMENT

Meaning: Empoisonment refers to the act of poisoning or the state of being poisoned, typically through the introduction of toxic substances into the body.

1. The detective discovered evidence of empoisonment in the victim's drink.
2. Doctors were baffled by the symptoms of empoisonment that the patient displayed.
3. Environmental activists raised concerns over the empoisonment of local water supplies.
4. The historical records detailed a case of empoisonment that shook the small community.
5. Empoisonment by toxic substances can lead to severe health complications and long-term effects.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/empoisonment>