

EMPRESSEMENT

Meaning: Empressement refers to a lively eagerness or enthusiastic willingness to help or engage in an activity.

1. Her empressement to assist with the project was evident as she arrived early each day.
2. Despite his usual calm demeanor, he showed an unusual empressement when discussing his promotion.
3. The team appreciated her empressement in organizing the event, which contributed to its success.
4. His empressement to share his ideas made the brainstorming session much more dynamic.
5. She approached the task with such empressement that it inspired everyone around her to contribute more enthusiastically.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/empressement>