

EMPTIER

Meaning: Emptier: comparative form of empty; having a greater degree of emptiness or lack of contents.

1. The abandoned warehouse felt even emptier after the last tenant moved out.
2. As the day went on, the park grew emptier, leaving only a few stragglers enjoying the sunset.
3. Her once bustling office seemed emptier without the lively conversations of her coworkers.
4. With each passing hour, the shelves in the store appeared emptier, signaling a successful sale.
5. After the party ended, the house felt emptier than ever, echoing with memories of laughter.
6. The room felt emptier after she left for the weekend.
7. As the sun set, the park grew emptier, with only a few joggers remaining.
8. His wallet was emptier than it had been after the shopping spree.
9. With each passing hour, the crowd became emptier, leaving behind a quiet atmosphere.
10. After the event, the once bustling venue seemed significantly emptier.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/emptier>