

EMPTY

Meaning: Empty: containing nothing; lacking in content or occupants, resulting in a sense of absence or desolation.

1. The room felt cold and desolate, its once vibrant walls now echoing with an empty silence.
2. After the party ended, the house was left in an empty state, devoid of laughter and joy.
3. She stared at the empty plate, remembering how much she used to enjoy the meal.
4. His heart felt empty after the news of her departure, leaving a void he could not fill.
5. The old library stood abandoned, with empty shelves collecting dust and memories of the past.
6. The room felt eerily empty after everyone had left.
7. She stared at her empty cup, wishing for just one more sip of coffee.
8. The streets were empty on that chilly Sunday morning.
9. He opened the box only to find it completely empty.
10. An empty promise can be more damaging than a broken one.
11. She stared at the empty bottle, wishing she had bought another drink.
12. His gaze swept over the empty fields, longing for the days of harvest.
13. The child's laughter echoed in the now empty playground.
14. She opened her wallet to find it completely empty of cash.
15. The room felt eerily empty after everyone had left the party.
16. She stared at the empty glass, wishing it were filled with her favorite drink.
17. His heart sank as he realized his bank account was nearly empty.
18. The shelves were empty, stripped bare of all the books that once filled them.
19. An empty promise is often more painful than no promise at all.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/empty>