

EMPURPLE

Meaning: To empurple means to make something purple or to imbue it with a purple hue.

1. The artist decided to empurple the canvas to evoke a sense of mystery and depth.
2. As the sun set, the sky began to empurple, creating a breathtaking backdrop for the evening.
3. The flowers in the garden seemed to empurple with the arrival of spring, adding vibrancy to the landscape.
4. In her dream, the world around her began to empurple, transforming the ordinary into the fantastical.
5. He used a special dye to empurple the fabric, giving the costume a regal appearance.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/empurple>