

EN

Meaning: "EN" is a prefix used to form verbs that mean to cause to be in a certain state or condition.

1. The artist painted the vibrant mural in the city center, and it became a popular spot for photos among locals and tourists alike.
 2. She decided to enroll in the advanced mathematics course because she wanted to deepen her understanding of complex theories.
 3. During the meeting, he presented his ideas clearly and confidently, earning the respect of his colleagues.
 4. The novel captivated readers with its rich characters and intricate plot, leaving many eager for a sequel.
 5. As the sun set over the horizon, the sky transformed into a stunning palette of oranges and purples, signaling the end of a beautiful day.
 6. The artist signed her painting with an elegant "EN" in the corner.
 7. He decided to learn French, but he also wanted to brush up on his English and EN skills.
 8. In the context of linguistics, "EN" stands for "English" in many language codes.
 9. The software update improved the language settings, allowing users to switch to "EN" effortlessly.
 10. During the meeting, the manager emphasized the importance of clear communication in EN for the international team.
 11. The letters "EN" often signify the beginning of words related to making or causing something.
 12. In French, "en" can mean "in" or "of," adding nuance to sentences.
 13. The abbreviation "EN" is frequently used in academic contexts to represent English.
 14. She felt a sense of peace wash over her as she stood by the serene lake in the fading light.
 15. His enthusiasm for learning new languages was evident when he spoke fluently in both English and Spanish.
-

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/en>