

ENAMORMENT

Meaning: Enamorment refers to a deep and often overwhelming feeling of love or admiration for someone or something.

1. The enamorment she felt for the city was evident in her every step.
2. His enamorment with classical literature led him to pursue a degree in English.
3. The artist's enamorment with nature inspired a series of breathtaking paintings.
4. Their mutual enamorment blossomed into a loving and supportive partnership.
5. Despite his initial skepticism, he found himself caught in the enamorment of her charm.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/enamorment>