

ENCALENDAR

Meaning: Encalendar (verb): To schedule or organize events or tasks on a calendar.

1. The organization plans to encalendar all the significant events for the upcoming year.
2. She decided to encalendar her daily tasks to improve her productivity.
3. In an effort to stay organized, he chose to encalendar all his appointments and deadlines.
4. To avoid missing any important dates, they will encalendar their family gatherings and holidays.
5. The teacher encouraged her students to encalendar their study sessions leading up to the exams.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/encalendar>