

ENCLASP

Meaning: ENCLASP (verb): To hold or grip something closely or firmly, often in a protective or affectionate manner.

1. The mother gently enclasped her child's hand as they crossed the busy street.
2. In a moment of pure joy, he enclasped the trophy tightly, savoring his victory.
3. As the sun set, the couple stood together, enclasping each other in a warm embrace.
4. The artist's fingers deftly enclasped the paintbrush, ready to create his next masterpiece.
5. With a sense of reverence, she enclasped the delicate locket, treasuring the memories within.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/enclasp>