

ENCOFFIN

Meaning: ENCOFFIN: to place a deceased person's body into a coffin for burial or cremation.

1. The family gathered to encoffin their beloved grandmother in a beautifully crafted oak casket.
2. During the ceremony, they chose to encoffin the remains with traditional rituals that honored her life.
3. In ancient cultures, it was common to encoffin the deceased with their favorite possessions for the afterlife.
4. The artist decided to encoffin her latest sculpture in a glass case, giving it a sense of finality and reverence.
5. As the sun set, they began to encoffin the fallen soldier, paying tribute to his bravery and sacrifice.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/encoffin>