

ENCOUNTER

Meaning: Encounter: a meeting or interaction with someone or something, often unexpectedly.

1. I had a surprising encounter with an old friend at the coffee shop yesterday.
2. During our hike, we had a chance encounter with a family of deer in the woods.
3. The scientist's discovery was the result of a serendipitous encounter with an unusual specimen.
4. Their encounter at the conference sparked a collaboration that changed the course of their research.
5. She often reminisces about her first encounter with the vibrant culture of the city during her travels.
6. I had the most surprising encounter with an old friend at the coffee shop yesterday.
7. The explorers were excited about their impending encounter with the rare species of bird.
8. During my travels, I often encounter different cultures that broaden my perspective.
9. The unexpected encounter with the lost hiker turned into a memorable adventure for both of us.
10. Facing a sudden encounter with a wild animal can be both thrilling and frightening.
11. The hikers were thrilled by their unexpected encounter with a family of deer in the woods.
12. During her travels, she had a chance encounter with an old friend from high school.
13. The scientist documented every encounter with the rare species for her research.
14. It's important to approach every encounter with an open mind and a willingness to learn.
15. They faced a challenging encounter in the meeting that tested their negotiation skills.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/encounter>