

ENCOWL

Meaning: To encowl means to envelop or cover something or someone in a cloak or similar garment, often to create a sense of mystery or warmth.

1. The artist decided to encowl the statue to give it a more mystical appearance.
2. During the storm, she chose to encowl herself in a thick blanket to keep warm.
3. The ancient ritual involved encowling the participants with ceremonial robes.
4. He found solace in encowling himself with a collection of his favorite books.
5. The tradition of encowling the bride in delicate fabrics added to the beauty of the ceremony.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/encowl>