

ENDOGENOUS

Meaning: Endogenous refers to factors or processes that originate from within a system rather than from external influences.

1. The researchers focused on the endogenous factors that influenced the participants' behaviors.
2. Endogenous growth theory suggests that economic growth is primarily driven by internal factors rather than external ones.
3. In psychology, endogenous depression is characterized by an internal origin rather than a response to external stressors.
4. The study aimed to differentiate between endogenous and exogenous variables in the model.
5. Endogenous compounds produced within the organism can have significant effects on its overall health.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/endogenous>