

ENDORSE

Meaning: To endorse means to publicly declare support for or approval of someone or something, often in a formal or official manner.

1. The celebrity chose to endorse the new fitness brand, believing in its mission and values.
2. Before the election, the senator received a significant endorsement from a prominent environmental organization.
3. She decided to endorse the initiative aimed at improving education for underprivileged children.
4. His decision to endorse the project surprised many, as he had previously been critical of similar proposals.
5. The company's CEO publicly endorsed the new policy, stating it would benefit both employees and customers.
6. The celebrity was quick to endorse the new charity initiative aimed at helping underprivileged children.
7. Many voters were eager to hear which candidates the influential group would endorse in the upcoming elections.
8. After careful consideration, the committee decided to endorse the proposal for a new community center.
9. The product received an official endorsement from several leading experts in the field, boosting its credibility.
10. She was proud to endorse her friend's campaign, believing he would make a positive impact in the community.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/endorse>