

ENERVOUS

Meaning: Enervous: feeling drained of energy or vitality; fatigued or weakened, often due to stress or anxiety.

1. The loud noise from the construction site made her enervous before the big meeting.
2. His constant criticism left her feeling enervous and unsure of her abilities.
3. The unexpected changes in the project timeline made the entire team enervous about meeting the deadline.
4. As the exam date approached, he became increasingly enervous about his performance.
5. The enervous atmosphere in the room was palpable as they awaited the results of the competition.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/enervous>